COMMISSION CHARGE-BACKS AND REFUNDS. Should the Company for any reason refund any premium on any policy secured hereunder, then the Agent shall repay, on demand, any commissions received on that premium. A failure to repay these commissions is agreed to constitute authorization for the Company to offset such amounts against any commissions due the Agent on any policy secured hereunder.

TRANSFER OF COMMISSIONS. Whenever a Sub-Agent, secured by an Agent pursuant to this Contract, fails to be entitled to the Renewal Commissions to which he would have been otherwise entitled under his Contract with the Company, all such Renewal Commissions shall, during the continuance of this Contract, be paid to the Agent, providing the Agent continues to service the Sub-Agent's business in force with the Company and makes a diligent effort to conserve such business. A failure to comply with this provision will deny the Agent the right to any such Renewal Commissions and the Company will assign another agent to service the business and collect the commissions.

EXPENSES. The Agent shall pay all expenses incurred by him or his Sub-Agents in the performance of this Contract and, when requested by the Company, shall furnish a bond of indemnity in such form and amount as may be approved by the Company. Agent agrees to not advertise or publish any matter or thing concerning the Company or its policy without filing a proposed copy of such material with the Company and obtaining approval, signed by an Officer of the Company.

TRAINING & ADVERTISING MATERIALS. If any training materials, sales ads or similar services are furnished to the Agent by the Company, it is for the purpose of assisting the Agent, and not to control the Agent. Such materials are considered to be proprietary information and the intellectual property of the Company. Agent will return all materials to the Company upon request or termination of this Contract. Agent acknowledges that unauthorized retention or disclosure of this information or materials will damage the Company.

LIABILITY. The Agent shall be jointly and severally liable, with each Sub-Agent, to the Company for the payment of all monies due from the Agent or his Sub-Agents, or debit balances on the account of the Agent or his Sub-Agents, or debit balances resulting from loans to the Agent or Sub-Agents from the Company. The Company's books and records shall be prima facie evidence of such debit balances or loans due. The Agent hereby assigns to the Company, with recourse, as collateral for all such monies due or debit balance or loans, all amounts due and to become due to the Agent from each Sub-Agent or from the Company, and all notes of Sub-Agents in favor of the Agent. The Agent agrees to execute all other documents required of him by the Company in order to properly evidence and effectuate such assignments, and to guarantee the legal enforceability thereof.

INDEBTEDNESS. Unless otherwise specifically provided, all debts due to the Company, including advances to the Agent or his Sub-Agents against commissions or other compensation, are payable upon demand and are not recoverable solely from commissions or other compensation.

The Company may at any time offset any debt or debts due from the Agent to the Company arising from his transactions under this or any previous or subsequent contract against any commission or other compensation due or to become due him from the Company and any and all affiliates of the Company.

ASSIGNMENTS. No assignment of any commission or any other monies, or any portion thereof due to or to become due the Agent hereunder shall be valid unless authorized in advance and in writing by an Officer of the Company. Any assignment so authorized shall be subject to any and all indebtedness of the Agent or his Sub-Agents to the Company then existing or thereafter accruing.

MONTHLY ACCOUNTING. The Company shall furnish the Agent with a monthly statement on a timely basis indicating all premiums collections, commissions earned and payments made to the Agent. The Agent shall notify the Company of all possible errors in the accounting statement within ninety (90) days of the closing of the monthly accounting period. A failure to give such notification shall be considered a waiver of the right to object to such accounting by the Agent.

TERMINATION. This Contract shall terminate on the earliest of the following dates:

- a. The date of death, dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, or total and permanent disability, of any Party to this Contract;
- b. The date specified in a notice of termination which may be given by the Company, such date being not less than thirty (30) days from the date the notice is delivered personally or is mailed to the last known address of the Agent;
- c. The date of any material violation by the Agent of any term or condition of this Contract;
- d. The date the Agent does any of the actions described below in "Termination of Vested Commissions" paragraph:

This agreement supersedes and replaces any and all other agreements between the Agent and the Company relating to the same matters. However, all financial obligations of the Parties to each other under any such prior contract(s), including debit balances, other debts, liens, rights to offset, and the obligation to pay commissions, still exist and will be combined and merged with similar obligations under this Contract

Any ambiguity in this Addendum shall be resolved to permit the Company to comply with the Privacy Standards.

Section 2. Amendment. Agent and the Company agree to amend this Addendum to the extent necessary to allow either Agent or the Company to comply with the Privacy Standards (45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164), the Standards for Electronic Transactions (45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 162) and the Security Standards (45 C.F.R. Agent and the Company will fully comply with all applicable Standards and other applicable federal or state regulations or statutes and will amend this Addendum to incorporate any material required by the Standards, such regulations or statutes.

Section 3. Definitions. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in Part IV of this Addendum.

II. OBLIGATIONS OF AGENT

Section 1. Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information. Agent may use and disclose Protected Health Information only as required to satisfy its obligations under this Agreement, as permitted herein, or as required by law, but shall not otherwise use or disclose any Protected Health Information. Agent shall not, and shall ensure that its directors, officers, employees, contractors and agents do not, use or disclose Protected Health Information in any manner that would constitute a violation of the Privacy Standards if done by the Company, except that Agent may use Protected Health Information if necessary (i) for the proper management and administration of Agent, (ii) to carry out the legal responsibilities of Agent or (iii) to provide Data Aggregation services relating to the Health care operations of the Company. Agent hereby acknowledges that, as between Agent and the Company, all Protected Health Information shall be and remain solely the property of the Company, including any and all forms thereof developed by Agent in the course of fulfilling its obligations pursuant to this Agreement. Agent further represents that, to the extent Agent requests the Company to disclose Protected Health Information to Agent, such request is only for the minimum Protected Health Information necessary for the accomplishment of Agent’s purpose.

Section 2. Safeguards Against Misuse of Information. Agent agrees that it will use all appropriate safeguards to prevent the use or disclosure of Protected Health Information other than pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Addendum.

Section 3. Agent’s Duty to Mitigate. Agent agrees to mitigate to the extent practicable any harmful effect that is known to Agent of a use or disclosure of Protected Health Information by Agent in violation of this Addendum.

Section 4. Reporting of Violations. Agent shall, within thirty (30) days of becoming aware of any use or disclosure of Protected Health Information not provided for by this Addendum by Agent or any of its officers, directors, employees, contractors or agents, report such use or disclosure to the Company.

Section 5. Agreements by Third Parties. Agent shall enter into and maintain an agreement, with each agent and subcontractor that has or will have access to Protected Health Information, under which the agent or subcontractor is legally bound by the same restrictions with respect to Protected Health Information that apply to Agent pursuant to this Addendum.

Section 6. Access to Information. Within ten (10) days of a request by the Company for access to Protected Health Information about an individual contained in a Designated Record Set, Agent shall make available to the Company or, as directed by the Company, to the individual, such Protected Health Information. In the event any individual requests access to his or her Protected Health Information directly from Agent, Agent shall within two (2) days forward such request to the Company. Any denials of access to the Protected Health Information requested shall be the responsibility of the Company.

Section 7. Availability of Protected Health Information for Amendment. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of a request from the Company for the amendment of an individual's Protected Health Information or a record regarding an individual contained in a Designated Record Set, Agent shall provide such information to the Company for amendment and incorporate any such amendments in the Protected Health Information as required by 45 C.F.R. § 164.526. Any denials of requested amendments shall be the responsibility of the Company.

Section 8. Documentation of Disclosures. Agent agrees to document such disclosures of Protected Health Information and information related to such disclosures as would be required of the Company to respond to a request by an individual for an accounting of disclosures of Protected Health Information in accordance with 45 C.F.R. § 164.528.

Section 9. Accounting of Disclosures. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from the Company that it has received a request for an accounting of disclosures of Protected Health Information, other than disclosures excepted under 45 C.F.R. § 164.528 (a). Agent shall provide to the Company the information in Agent's possession that is required for the Company to make the accounting required by 45 C.F.R. § 164.528 (b) and (c). At a minimum, Agent shall provide the Company with the following information for each disclosure; (i) the date of the disclosure, (ii) the name of the entity or person who received the Protected Health Information and, if known, the address of such entity or person, (iii) a brief description of the Protected Health Information disclosed, and (iv) a brief statement of the purpose of such disclosure which includes an explanation of the basis for such disclosure. In the event an individual's request for an accounting is delivered directly to Agent, Agent shall within two (2) days forward such request to the Company. Agent hereby agrees to implement an appropriate recordkeeping process to enable it to comply with the requirements of this section.

Section 10. Availability of Books and Records. Agent hereby agrees to make its internal practices, books and records including policies and procedures relating to the use and disclosure of Protected Health Information available to the Secretary for purposes of determining the Company's compliance with the Privacy Standards.

Section 11. Indemnification. Agent hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Company, its employees, officers and directors harmless from and against any and all liability, payment, loss, cost, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs), or penalty incurred by Company, its employees, officers or directors in connection with any claim, suit, or action asserted against such entity or person resulting from the failure to fulfill any obligation of this Addendum by Agent, its agents or subcontractors.

Section 12. Insurance. The Company strongly encourages each Agent to obtain and maintain during the term of this Agreement liability insurance covering claims based on a violation of the Standards or any applicable state law or regulation concerning the privacy of Health information and claims based on its obligations pursuant to Section 9 of Part II of this Addendum in an amount not less than an amount sufficient to indemnify the company in the event of a breach. Such insurance should be in the form of occurrence based coverage and should name the Company as an additional named insured.

Section 13. Notice of Request for Data. Agent agrees to notify the Company within five (5) business days of Agent's receipt of any request, subpoena, or judicial or administrative order to disclose Protected Health Information. To the extent that the Company decides to assume responsibility for challenging the validity of such request, subpoena or order, Agent agrees to cooperate fully with the Company in such challenge.

Section 14. Injunction. Agent hereby agrees that the Company will suffer irreparable damage upon Agent's breach of its obligations under this Addendum and that such damages shall be difficult to quantify. Agent hereby agrees that the Company may file, and Agent will not contest, an action for an injunction to enforce the terms of this Addendum against Agent, in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.

III. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT WITH AGENT

Section 1. Termination Upon Breach of Provisions Applicable to Protected Health Information. Any other provision of this Agreement notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated by the Company upon five (5) business days prior written notice to Agent in the event that Agent materially breaches any obligation of this Addendum and fails to cure the breach within such five (5) day period; provided, however, that in the event that termination of this Agreement is not feasible, in the Company's sole discretion, Agent hereby acknowledges that the Company shall have the right to report the breach to the Secretary.

Section 2. Return or Destruction of Protected Health Information upon Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, Agent shall either return to the Company or destroy all Protected Health Information which Agent then maintains in any form. Agent shall not retain any copies of the Protected Health Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the Company agrees that it is not feasible for Agent to return or destroy any Protected Health Information, the provisions of this Addendum shall survive termination of this Agreement and Agent shall limit any further uses and disclosures of such Protected Health Information to the purpose or purposes which make the return or destruction of such Protected Health Information infeasible.

Section 3. The Company's Right of Cure. The Company shall have the right to cure, at the expense of Agent, any breach of Agent's obligations under this Addendum. The Company shall give Agent notice of its election to cure any such breach and Agent shall cooperate fully in the efforts by the Company to cure Agent's breach. Agent shall pay for such services of the Company within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's request for payment.

Section 4. Transition Assistance. AGENT ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING POLICY

INTRODUCTION

The USA PATRIOT ACT Pub. Law 107-56(2001) "Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act was enacted in order to better protect the financial services industry from potential abuse by criminals and terrorists. Among other things, the Act requires insurance companies to establish anti-money laundering programs and the Department of the Treasury to set standards for these programs. The Treasury Department and its Financial Crimes Enforcement Network have issued regulations requiring insurance companies to establish an anti-money laundering program and to report suspicious transactions. In this program insurance agents and brokers are expected to play an important role.

THE DEFINITION OF MONEY LAUNDERING

Money Laundering: Money Laundering is a varied and often complicated process that can, but does not always, involve cash transactions. Illegally-obtained money is filtered through a series of transactions that eventually make the money appear to be obtained from "clean", or legal, activities. The money laundering process has been described as having three phases that often overlap:

Placement- Injecting ill-gotten proceeds, including cash, into the financial system through transactions such as bank deposits.

Layering- Separating illicit proceeds from their criminal source through complex financial transactions.

Integration- Putting the proceeds back into circulation in the economy, with the appearance of legality.

TERRORIST FINANCING

Terrorist Financing: Terrorist financing involves the use of money, which may be lawfully obtained, to fund illegal activities. Because the transactions often have a legitimate origin and can often involve small amounts of money, terrorist financing can be more difficult to identify than money-laundering activities. However, an effective anti-money laundering program can help prevent the use of legal funds for terrorism activities.

AGENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Role In Gathering Information: Insurance agents are an integral part of the insurance industry due to their contact with applicants. As a result, the agent will often be in a critical position of knowledge as they have direct contact with applicants and are thus often in the best position to gather information and detect suspicious activity.

General responsibilities will include:

1. Obtaining and providing a complete and accurate application and all other documents.
2. Cooperation with the Compliance Officer:
Address: PO Box 27248, Salt Lake City, UT 84127-0248
Telephone Number (844) 442-3847
3. Reporting Suspicious Activities

IDENTIFYING RED FLAGS AND REPORTING SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITIES

As agents, you are often in the best position to detect suspicious activity. To help in determining what consists of suspicious activity below is a list of "Red Flags."

Examples of Red Flags are:

1. Policy owner or applicant exhibits unusual concern about the insurance company's compliance with Government reporting requirements or its AML policies, particularly with respect to his or her identity, type of business and assets, or is reluctant or refuses to reveal information concerning business activities, or furnishes unusual or suspect identification or business documents.
2. Policy owner wishes to engage in transactions that lack business sense or apparent investment purposes, or are inconsistent with stated business strategy.
3. The information provided by the customer that identifies a legitimate source for funds is false, misleading, or substantially incorrect.
4. Policy owner exhibits a lack of concern regarding investment risks, commissions, surrender charges, sales charges, or other transaction costs.
5. Upon request the customer refuses to identify or fails to indicate any legitimate source for his or her funds and other assets.
6. The policy owner appears to be acting as an agent for an undisclosed principal, but declines or is reluctant, without legitimate commercial reasons, to provide information or is otherwise evasive regarding the person.
7. Policy owner or applicant has difficulty describing the nature of his or her business or lacks general knowledge of his or her industry; in the case of a business account.
8. Policy owner or applicant is from, or maintains accounts or policies in a Financial Action Task Force non-cooperative jurisdiction or a Financial Crimes Enforcement Network designated jurisdiction of Primary Money Laundering Concern. New business in any way involves individual, entities, or countries on the Office of Foreign Assets Control list.
9. The customer engages in transactions involving cash or cash equivalents or other "monetary" instruments that appear to be structured to avoid the $5,000 government reporting requirements, especially if the cash or monetary instruments that are in an amount just below reporting or recording thresholds. Currently $5,000 for a Suspicious Activity Report.
10. For no apparent reason, the applicant has multiple accounts under a single name or multiple names, with a large number of inter-account or third-party transfers.
11. Policy owner or customer makes a premium payment or deposit followed by an immediate request that the funds be wired out or transferred to a third party or another firm, with no apparent business or other purpose.
12. Policy owner requests that a transaction be processed in such a manner to avoid the insurance company's normal documentation protocols.
13. ACL experiences inflow of funds well beyond the known income or resources of the policy owner or customer.
14. Request is made for disbursements to be made payable to an agent or third party other than another financial institution.
15. Withdrawal, loan or surrender request is preceded by, or accompanied by, an address change.

METHODS OF PAYMENT

Suspicious Methods of Payment: Certain forms of payment, including cash, money orders, traveler's check and bank checks can be used in the placement phase of a money laundering scheme. In order to eliminate possible money laundering schemes, the goal is to reduce the chances that we will be involved in a money laundering scheme. Because agents and brokers often collect the first premium payment due under a policy, it is the responsibility of agents to inform applicants of these rules and enforce them.

VERIFICATION OF FUNDS AND IDENTITY

Verification of Funds: If an applicant provides a form of payment that is cash, money orders, traveler's checks or bank checks, agents should inquire further about the source of the funds, i.e. where did the funds come from?

Verification of Identity: For applicants who are natural persons or the sole proprietor of a business, the agent or brokers must obtain and record the following information before a policy can be issued:

1. NAME
2. ADDRESS
3. DATE OF BIRTH

In order to comply with Atlantic Coast Life Insurance Company's verification of identity:

1. Request an unexpired government-issued form of identification bearing a photograph.
2. Confirm that the photograph matches the applicant.
3. Confirm address, date of birth, and other personal information.
4. Record the identifying information from the identification.

Applicants who resist providing the necessary documentation and information, as described, or who appear to have provided false or misleading information, or information that cannot be verified, contact the Compliance Officer. ATLANTIC COAST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY will then make a risk-based decision as to the quality of the information available and the circumstances of the client interaction.

ASSEMBLING INFORMATION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Information for Suspicious Reporting: As agents, it is crucial that the information about suspicious activity be reported to the Compliance Officer in a timely manner. The Compliance Officer may request additional information from you as an agent in order to complete a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR). Please obtain this information as quickly as possible, and ensure its accuracy.

Confidentiality: The fact that a SAR has been filed or considered, and the contents of any SAR that has been filed, are strictly confidential. The Compliance Officer has the sole responsibility for responding to any inquiry regarding the subject matter of any SAR. Any agent must not, under any circumstances, disclose the fact that a SAR has been filed, or considered, or the contents of a SAR, to the subject of a SAR or to any other person.

By my signature below I certify that I have read Atlantic Coast Life Insurance Company's ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING program that complies with the guidelines required by the Pub. Law 107- 56(2001) "Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act (USA Patriot Act) This document will be held in my agent file as evidence of my acknowledgement of my responsibilities as a licensed agent with Atlantic Coast Life Insurance Company.
